Luisa Moreira Hopker, MD, PhD, is a Brazilian pediatric ophthalmologist and strabismus specialist. She completed a fellowship in Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus at the Federal University of São Paulo, where she earned her PhD and is currently conducting postdoctoral research. She also trained as an international fellow at UT Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas. Dr. Hopker practices at Hospital de Olhos do Paraná in Curitiba, where she has directed a pediatric ophthalmology fellowship program since 2013, training new specialists. She has performed more than 4,000 strabismus surgeries, with extensive experience in fornix-incision and adjustable-suture techniques. A former President of the Brazilian Society of Pediatric Ophthalmology, she expanded its membership and educational activities and launched SBOPcast, a recognized continuing medical education platform. A young leader in Brazilian ophthalmology, she chaired the 2025 Brazilian Ophthalmology Congress. She is Associate Editor of Arquivos Brasileiros de Oftalmologia and serves on the WSPOS Executive Bureau.
