

Silvia Moguel-Ancheita, MS, MD
Grupo "Mira" Centro Oftalmológico, Mexico City, Spain
smoguel@prodigy.net.mx
ORCID 0000-0003-3744-4337
Research Topics: Strabismus, Nystagmus, Ophthalmoplegias, Brain Damage, Cerebral Visual Impairment, Neurodevelopment, Albinism, Rare Developmental Diseases.

Dr. Silvia Moguel-Ancheita is a Mexican ophthalmic surgeon specializing in strabismus, based in Mexico City. She holds a Master's degree in Neurosciences from Pablo de Olavide University in Spain, along with a Master's in Research Ethics. She has served as president and currently serves as an advisor to the Mexican Society of Ophthalmology and holds an academic appointment as Head Professor of the High Specialty in Strabismus program at Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México. Her professional distinctions include Honor Awards in Surgeon Career, Professional Examination, and the Ophthalmology Specialty. She serves on the Editorial Committee of the Mexican Journal of Ophthalmology and as a reviewer for the Spanish Archives of Ophthalmology and coordinated the 2022 International Strabismological Association congress. Dr. Moguel-Ancheita practices at Grupo "Mira" Centro Oftalmológico in Mexico City She is part of over 400 Paper presentations, 200 Courses, 84 Publications, 20 Thesis Advisees, and multiple Magistral Conferences.