

Meenakshi Swaminathan, MS
CODE Eyecare, Chennai, India
meenakshiswaminathan@gmail.com
ORCID: https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2226-6526
Research Topics: Cerebral Visual Impairment, Curriculum Development, Faculty development, Mentorship, Public Health and Prevention, Strabismus

Dr. Meenakshi Swaminathan is a pediatric ophthalmologist, strabismus specialist, and internationally recognized educator based in Chennai, India. She is currently Consultant in Pediatric Ophthalmology at CODE Eyecare and has previously served as Senior Consultant and Residency Program Director at Sankara Nethralaya, Chennai, India. She trained at PGIMER, Chandigarh, the University of Louisville, the University of Iowa, and the University of Texas Health Science Center, and was certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology. Dr. Swaminathan has held numerous leadership roles with the International Council of Ophthalmology, the Ophthalmology Foundation, and the All India Ophthalmological Society. She has authored over 60 peer-reviewed publications, with major contributions to pediatric ophthalmology, strabismus, myopia, and ophthalmic education. A recipient of multiple national and international awards, she is widely recognized for her work in curriculum development, faculty development, mentoring, and advancing excellence in ophthalmic education.